ORDER

Pending before the Court is Plaintiff Jason Lynch's ("Lynch") Motion for Subpoena. (Doc. 19). Lynch seeks an order to subpoena all of his inmate records from White County Detention Center, including all grievances, all requests, all sick calls, all medical requests, any and all other inmate records, incoming and outgoing mail logs, any and all video or body camera footage, any internal memoranda or emails about Lynch, all health records and notes, and an email sent from Lieutenant Ross regarding legal mail. Id. at 1.

Lynch fails to explain how any of the requested information is relevant to his claims, which have not yet been screened by the Court.¹ The Court will issue a screening order in due course. Plaintiff's Motion for Subpoena (Doc. 19) is DENIED as premature at this time, but to the extent that Plaintiff requests that the White County Detention Center take steps to preserve any evidence related to Plaintiff's claims, Plaintiff's request is denied with leave to renew. Plaintiff may file a motion to preserve evidence, explaining the relevance of the evidence that he requests the Court to order preserved by White County Detention Center. If the Court determines that any of the requested evidence is relevant to Plaintiff's claims in this lawsuit, the Court may direct the White County Detention Center to preserve any video or other evidence related to his claims.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. Lynch's Motion for Subpoena (Doc. 19) is DENIED as premature.
2. Lynch's request that the White County Detention Center take steps to preserve any evidence related to Plaintiff's claims (Doc. 19), is DENIED with leave to renew.

SO ORDERED this 30th day of September, 2024.
