CENTRAL DIVISION

v. Case No. 4:24-cv-00740-LPR-BBM

Does, et al.
Defendants

NOTICE TO THE COURT AND PRAYER FOR LEAVE TO FILE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE B. MOORE:

COMES NOW Plaintiff, Jason Matthew Lynch, proceeding pro se, and respectfully submits this Notice to the Court. Plaintiff first prays for leave of Court to submit this limited notice, as it concerns a material clarification to a statement previously made in Plaintiff's objections to Defendants' Joint Motion to Strike.

Plaintiff submits this Notice with the utmost respect for the Court's prior instruction for the parties to stand down. However, in an effort to remain fully truthful, accurate, and transparent with the Court, Plaintiff believes it necessary to correct and clarify the record.

1. PURPOSE OF THIS NOTICE

In Plaintiff's prior objections, Plaintiff stated that his related state-law violations and tort claims case consisted of a single filed omnibus packet, which had remained as one unified filing for over three (3) months.

As of approximately April 6, 2026, Plaintiff became aware of a material change.

2. CLERK ACTION AND CHANGE IN RECORD STRUCTURE

The state court clerk has now separated the original omnibus filing into multiple individual pleadings, including but not limited to:

Motions to Preserve Evidence

Medical Reports

Blood Work Documentation

Supporting Briefs

TRULINCS 07405510 - LYNCH, JASON M - Unit: ERE-D-A

Memoranda of State Law

This administrative action appears to have been taken by the clerk's office in accordance with that court's internal procedures and customs, and not at Plaintiff's direction.

Plaintiff respectfully notes that he originally requested the filing be accepted as a single omnibus packet, consistent with his submission.

3. REASON FOR THIS NOTICE

Plaintiff files this Notice out of an abundance of caution and solely to ensure that every statement made to this Court remains factually accurate to the best of his knowledge.

Plaintiff has no control over how clerks in other courts docket or organize filings, and therefore felt compelled to notify this Court that what was previously described as a single filing has now been administratively divided into multiple entries.

4. CLARIFICATION OF INTENT

Plaintiff respectfully affirms:

This Notice is not filed to harass the Court or any party;

This Notice is not intended to abuse any judicial process;

This Notice is submitted solely to maintain accuracy and integrity of the record.

Additionally, the fact that the related state matter is now proceeding further supports that the claims presented therein have been recognized as sufficiently meritorious to move forward procedurally.

5. PRO SE STATUS

Plaintiff further notes that he is proceeding without counsel, and therefore does not have the benefit of informal correction mechanisms that may otherwise be available. As such, filing this Notice is the only available method to ensure the record remains correct.

6. PRAYER FOR LEAVE AND CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for leave of Court to submit this limited Notice for the sole purpose of correcting and clarifying a prior statement.

Plaintiff further affirms that, in compliance with the Court's directive, no further filings will be made on this issue.

Plaintiff thanks the Court for its time, patience, and continued fair and just consideration of this matter.
